Re: Maurice Felix Stoney (A) v. Roland Twinn (R) and others
Appeal No. 1703-0195AC

I have reviewed your correspondence of today's date.

You have asked for an extension of a deadline contained in a court order. I cannot grant that extension. Only a judge can extend a deadline within which to pay an Order for Security for Costs. To make that request, you would need to file an Application and a Memorandum of Argument and pay a filing fee of $50. All parties to the appeal must receive a copy of your application and supporting documents.

If the payment of $10,000 is not made by February 28 (or if the deadline is not extended), your appeal will be deemed abandoned as ordered by the Court.

Thank you,
