Hi Marco,

After some internal discussion, we are planning in adding these two sentences to the letter that is just about ready to go out. The first addresses privacy issues and the second minors.

1. "Neither your name nor any other personal information will be provided to Sawridge Trusts or any other third party. The only information we will provide to Sawridge Trusts is the total number of people we notified by means of this letter."
2. "If you are a minor, or the guardian of minor who may have an interest in the Application, the Public Trustee for the Province of Alberta can be contacted for further information."

Let me know if these changes cause you any concern.

Subject: Re: Sawridge Trusts: Draft Letter to Affiliated Persons

Hello Marco,

I am pleased to advise that AAND will attempt to identify all the "affiliated persons" of the Sawridge Band and advise them of the Sawridge Trusts website.

Here is a draft of the proposed letter I prepared that will be sent out to them. Please let me know if it is satisfactory.

I should mention I have noted that the formatting is sometimes lost in transmission and I am not aware of it until someone sends it back to me.

Dear Affiliated Person,

Our records indicate that when you became registered as an "Indian" pursuant to the provisions of the Indian Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. I-5, as amended, your registration was "affiliated" with the Sawridge Band. As the Sawridge Band had taken control of determining its own membership from 1985 on, such affiliation, by itself, did not bestow any rights of membership in the Sawridge Band upon you.

Between 1982 and 1986, the Sawridge Band created several trusts to hold and administer certain assets which the Sawridge Band had acquired and transferred into the trusts (the "Sawridge Trusts"). The Sawridge Trusts are separate legal entities from the Sawridge Band.

The Chief Executive Officer of the Sawridge Trusts recently filed an application in order to seek "advice and directions" from the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta (the "Application") in regards to certain matters dealing with the Sawridge Trusts. Full details of the Trusts and the proposed Application can be found on their website at www.sawridgetrusts.ca

The Sawridge Trusts do not have access to the names and addresses of the affiliated persons and have asked the Government of Canada to use its best efforts to try and contact these persons so that they are aware of the pending Application and can, if they choose to do so, get independent legal advice in respect thereof.

In providing this notification on behalf of the Sawridge Trusts, the Government of Canada;

- a) is doing so on a strictly gratuitous and voluntary basis to accommodate a request to do so from the Sawridge Trusts and, as Canada relies on the affiliated persons to update their addresses, Canada is not warranting or undertaking to anyone that any person to whom this notice is addressed will in fact receive it, and assumes no liability for the failure of such notice to reach any such individual;*
- b) makes no representations:*
  - i. about the accuracy of any information found on the Sawridge Trusts website and is not in a position to disclose any other information in regards to the Application to third parties other than what is found on the website, and*
  - ii. that any or all of the affiliated persons have any standing or interest in the Application; and*
- c) will not be in a position to offer any legal advice to persons outside the Government of Canada in respect thereof.*

Yours, etc.

Once I have your approval I will send it to AAND with instructions to send it out to the people it has identified as "affiliated" with the Sawridge Band but not on the Band List you sent me.

Subject: Sawridge Trusts Application Notifications

Hello Marco,

The letter, to all the affiliates and minors we could identify, went out to their last known addresses on November 8th, 2011.

It went to 374 persons of whom 60 appeared to be minors.

I trust this is satisfactory and our voluntary role to assist is completed.

As for your proposed meeting with the two Counsel the Public Trustee has retained, I will seek instructions about attending --if the two Counsel have no objections, of course.

Dear [REDACTED]:

Our records indicate that when you became registered as an "Indian" pursuant to the provisions of the Indian Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. 1-5, as amended, your registration was "affiliated" with the Sawridge Band. In 1985, the Sawridge Band had taken control of determining its own membership, therefore, such affiliation, by itself, did not bestow any rights of membership in the Sawridge Band upon you.

Between 1982 and 1986, the Sawridge Band created several trusts to hold and administer certain assets which the Sawridge Band had acquired and transferred into the trusts (the "Sawridge Trusts"). The Sawridge Trusts are separate legal entities from the Sawridge Band.

The Chief Executive Officer of the Sawridge Trusts recently filed an application in order to seek "advice and directions" from the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta (the "Application") in regards to certain matters dealing with the Sawridge Trusts. Full details of the Trusts and the proposed Application can be found on their website at www.sawridgetrusts.ca.

It is suggested that you periodically check the Sawridge Trusts website to ascertain where and when the Application will be heard.

The Sawridge Trusts do not have access to the names and addresses of the person's affiliated with the Sawridge Band, and have asked the Government of Canada to use its best efforts to try and contact these persons so that they are aware of the pending Application and can, if they choose to do so, get independent legal advice in respect thereof.

In providing this notification on behalf of the Sawridge Trusts, the Government of Canada:

- a) Is doing so on a strictly gratuitous and voluntary basis to accommodate a request to do so from the Sawridge Trusts and, as Canada relies on the affiliated persons to update their addresses, Canada is not warranting or undertaking to anyone that any person to whom this notice is addressed will in fact receive it, and assumes no liability for the failure of such notice to reach any such individual;
- b) Makes no representations:
  - i. about the accuracy of any information found on the Sawridge Trusts website and is not in a position to disclose any other information on regards to the Application to third parties other than what is found on the website, and

- ii. that any or all of the affiliated persons have any standing or interest in the Application; and
- c) Will not be in a position to offer any legal advice to persons outside the Government of Canada in respect thereof.

Additionally, be advised that:

1. Neither your name nor any other personal information will be provided to Sawridge Trusts or any other third party. The only information we will provide to Sawridge Trusts is the total number of people we notified by means of this letter.
2. If you are a minor, or the guardian of a minor who may have an interest in the Application, the Public Trustee for the Province of Alberta can be contacted, at the number noted below, for information pertaining to the Public Trustee's authority over the administration of minor's property.

SENT BY REGISTERED MAIL

Dear Mr. Bosscha,

The Trustees (the "Trustees") of the Sawridge Band Inter Vivos Settlement created on April 15, 1985 (the "1985 Trust") will be bringing an application for the opinion, advice and direction of the Court respecting the administration and management of the property held under the 1985 Trust (the "Advice and Direction Application"). The Advice and Direction Application shall be brought:

- a. To seek direction with respect to the definition of "Beneficiaries" contained in the 1985 Trust, and if necessary to vary the 1985 Trust to clarify the definition of "Beneficiaries".
- b. To seek direction with respect to the transfer of assets to the 1985 Trust.

A website (the "Website") has been created which will contain information in respect of the Advice and Direction Application. The Website is located at <http://www.sawridgetrusts.ca/courtdoc>. You will have access to this Website and the documents contained thereon, including all documents filed with the Court in relation to the Advice and Direction Application, which documents are located under the "Court Documents" tab of the home page of the Website.

On 1 September 2011 an Order was issued by the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta in relation to the Advice and Direction Application. The Order directs that the Trustees provide notice of the Advice and Direction Application to the Beneficiaries and Potential Beneficiaries of the 1985 Trust by way of this letter. The Order also includes deadlines for filing affidavits and written legal argument with the Court in respect of the Advice and Direction Application. This Order can be accessed on the Website, under the "Court Documents" tab.

We ask that you acknowledge receipt of this letter by signing the enclosed copy of the letter and returning it to the Sawridge Trusts at the address below.

Cordially,

Paul Bujold,
Trusts' Administrator

Dear Sir:

Re: Service of Application

We are the solicitors for a private trust whose beneficiaries may include affiliated members of an Indian Band, infant children of Indians who ordinarily reside on a reserve, and deceased or mentally incompetent Indians who ordinarily reside or resided on a reserve. We have been instructed to bring an application with respect to the trust. The Notice of the application must be served on the potential beneficiaries of the trust. Since March 24, 2011, we have attempted to make inquiries with various members of the Department of Indian and Northern Affairs and with your office with respect to the following:

1. Whether the Office of the Indian Registrar could provide us with a list of the affiliated members of the Band for the purpose of serving our application;
2. Whether the Office of the Indian Registrar would be able and willing to serve the affiliated members of the Band with our application; and
3. Whether the Office of the Indian Registrar would accept service of our application on behalf of the Minister of Indian and Northern Affairs?

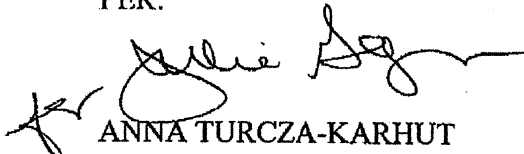

Despite our efforts, we have not received an answer to any of the questions above. Accordingly, we ask that you please provide us your response at your earliest convenience. We note that without knowing the answers to the above questions, we may not be able to bring our application.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours truly,

REASONS FOR ORDER AND ORDER

HUGESSEN, J.:

[1] In this action, started some 17 years ago, the plaintiff has sued the Crown seeking a declaration that the 1985 amendments to the Indian Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. I-5, commonly known as Bill C-31, are unconstitutional. While I shall later deal in detail with the precise text of the relevant amendments, I cannot do better here than reproduce the Court of Appeal's brief description of the thrust of the legislation when it set aside the first judgment herein and ordered a new trial:

Briefly put, this legislation, while conferring on Indian bands the right to control their own band lists, obliged bands to include in their membership certain persons who became entitled to Indian status by virtue of the 1985 legislation. Such persons included: women who had become disentitled to Indian status through marriage to non-Indian men and the children of such women; those who had lost status because their mother and paternal grandmother were non-Indian and had gained Indian status through marriage to an Indian; and those who had lost status on the basis that they were illegitimate offspring of an Indian woman and a non-Indian man. Bands assuming control of their band lists would be obliged to accept all these people as members. Such bands would also be allowed, if they chose, to accept certain other categories of persons previously excluded from Indian status.

[Sawridge Band v. Canada (C.A.), [1997] 3 F.C. 580 at paragraph 2]

[2] The Crown defendant now moves for the following interlocutory relief:

a. An interlocutory declaration that, pending a final determination of the Plaintiff's action, in accordance with the provisions of the Indian Act, R.S.C. 1985 c. 1-5, as amended, (the "Indian Act, 1985") the individuals who acquired the right to be members of the Sawridge Band before it took control of its own Band List, shall be deemed to be registered on the Band List as members of the Sawridge Band, with the full rights and privileges enjoyed by all band members;

b. In the alternative, an interlocutory mandatory injunction, pending a final resolution of the Plaintiffs' action, requiring the Plaintiffs to enter or register on the Sawridge Band List the names of the individuals who acquired the right to be members of the Sawridge Band before it took control of its Band list, with the full rights and privileges enjoyed by all band members.

[3] The basis of the Crown's request is the allegation that the plaintiff Band has consistently and persistently refused to comply with the remedial provisions of C-31, with the result that 11 women, who had formerly been members of the Band and had lost both their Indian status and their Band membership by marriage to non-Indians pursuant to the former provisions of section 12(1)b of the Act, are still being denied the benefits of the amendments.

Received Time Mar.27. 10:51AM

[4] Because these women are getting on in years (a twelfth member of the group has already died and one other is seriously ill) and because the action, despite intensive case management over the past five years, still seems to be a long way from being ready to have the date of the new trial set down, the Crown alleges that it is urgent that I should provide some form of interim relief before it is too late.

[5] In my view, the critical and by far the most important question raised by this motion is whether the Band, as the Crown alleges, is in fact refusing to follow the provisions of C-31 or whether, as the Band alleges, it is simply exercising the powers and privileges granted to it by the legislation itself. I shall turn to that question shortly, but before doing so, I want to dispose of a number of subsidiary or incidental questions which were discussed during the hearing.

[6] First, I am quite satisfied that the relief sought by the Crown in paragraph a. above is not available. An interim declaration of right is a contradiction in terms. If a court finds that a right exists, a declaration to that effect is the end of the matter and nothing remains to be dealt with in the final judgment. If, on the other hand, the right is not established to the court's satisfaction, there can be no entitlement to have an unproved right declared to exist. (See Sankey v. Minister of Transport and Stanley E. Haskins, [1979] 1 F.C. 134 (F.C.T.D.)) I accordingly treat the motion as though it were simply seeking an interlocutory injunction.

Received Time Mar.27. 10:51AM

[7] Second, in the unusual and perhaps unique circumstances of this case, I accept the submission that since I am dealing with a motion seeking an interlocutory injunction, the well-known three part test established in such cases as Manitoba (Attorney General) v. Metropolitan Stores (MTS) Ltd., [1987] 1 S.C.R. 110 and R J R Macdonald v. Canada (Attorney General), [1994] 1 S.C.R. 311 should in effect be reversed. The universally applicable general rule for anyone who contests the constitutionality of legislation is that such legislation must be obeyed unless and until it is either stayed by court order or is set aside on final judgment. Here, assuming the Crown's allegations of non-compliance are correct, the plaintiff Band has effectively given itself an injunction and has chosen to act as though the law which it contests did not exist. I can only permit this situation to continue if I am satisfied that the plaintiff could and should have been given an interlocutory injunction to suspend the effects of C-31 pending trial. Applying the classic test, therefore, requires that I ask myself if the plaintiff has raised a serious issue in its attack on the law, whether the enforcement of the law will result in irreparable harm to the plaintiff, and finally, determine where the balance of convenience lies. I do not accept the proposition that because the injunction sought is of a mandatory nature, the test should in any way be different from that set down in the cited cases. (See Ansa International Rent-A-Car (Canada) Ltd. v. American International Rent-A-Car Corp., [1990] F.C.J. No. 514; 32 C.P.R. (3d) 340.)

Received Time Mar.27. 10:51AM

[8] It is not contested by the Crown that the plaintiff meets the first part of the test, but it seems clear to me that it cannot possibly meet the other two parts. It is very rare that the enforcement of a duly adopted law will result in irreparable harm and there is nothing herein which persuades me that this is such a rarity. Likewise, whatever inconvenience the plaintiff may suffer by admitting 11 old ladies to membership is nothing compared both to the damage to the public interest in having Parliament's laws flouted and to the private interests of the women in question who, at the present rate of progress, are unlikely ever to benefit from a law which was adopted with people in their position specifically in mind.

[9] Thirdly, I reject the proposition put forward by the plaintiff that would deny the Court the power to issue the injunction requested because the Crown has not alleged a cause of action in support thereof in its statement of defence. The Court's power to issue injunctions is granted by section 44 of the Federal Court Act and is very broad. Interpreting a similar provision in a provincial statute in the case of Canadian Pacific Ltd. v. Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees Canadian Pacific System Federation, [1996] 2 S.C.R. 495, the Supreme Court said at page 505:

Canadian courts since Channel Tunnel have applied it for the proposition that the courts have jurisdiction to grant an injunction where there is a justiciable right, wherever that right may fall to be determined... This accords with the more general recognition throughout Canada that the court may grant interim relief where final relief will be granted in another forum.

Received Time Mar.27. 10:51AM

[10] The Supreme Court of Canada confirmed the Federal Court of Canada's broad jurisdiction to grant relief under section 44 : Canada (HRC) v. Canadian Liberty Net, [1998] 1 S.C.R. 626.

[11] Likewise, I do not accept the plaintiff's argument to the effect that the Crown has no standing to bring the present motion. I have already indicated that I feel that there is a strong public interest at play in upholding the laws of Canada unless and until they are struck down by a court of competent jurisdiction. That interest is uniquely and properly represented by the Crown and its standing to bring the motion is, in my view, unassailable.

[12] Finally, the plaintiff argued strongly that the women in question have not applied for membership. This argument is a simple "red herring". It is quite true that only some of them have applied in accordance with the Band's membership rules, but that fact begs the question as to whether those rules can lawfully be used to deprive them of rights to which Parliament has declared them to be entitled. The evidence is clear that all of the women in question wanted and sought to become members of the Band and that they were refused at least implicitly because they did not or could not fulfil the rules' onerous application requirements.

-What

even all women

Received Time Mar. 27. 10:51AM

[13] This brings me at last to the main question: has the Band refused to comply with the provisions of C-31 so as to deny to the 11 women in question the rights guaranteed to them by that legislation?

[14] I start by setting out the principal relevant provisions.

2.(1) "member of a band" means a person whose name appears on a Band List or who is entitled to have his name appear on a Band List.

5. (1) There shall be maintained in the Department an Indian Register in which shall be recorded the name of every person who is entitled to be registered as an Indian under this Act.

(3) The Registrar may at any time add to or delete from the Indian Register the name of any person who, in accordance with this Act, is entitled or not entitled, as the case may be, to have his name included in the Indian Register.

(5) The name of a person who is entitled to be registered is not required to be recorded in the Indian Register unless an application for registration is made to the Registrar.

6. (1) Subject to section 7, a person is entitled to be registered if

(c) the name of that person was omitted or deleted from the Indian Register, or from a band list prior to September 4, 1951, under subparagraph 12(1)(a)(iv), paragraph 12(1)(b) or subsection 12(2) or under subparagraph 12(1)(a)(iii) pursuant to an order made under subsection 109(2), as each provision read immediately prior to April 17, 1985, or under any former provision of this Act relating to the same subject-matter as any of those provisions;

8. There shall be maintained in accordance with this Act for each band a Band List in which shall be entered the name of every person who is a member of that band.

9. (1) Until such time as a band assumes control of its Band List, the Band List of that band shall be maintained in the Department by the Registrar.

(2) The names in a Band List of a band immediately prior to April 17, 1985 shall constitute the Band List of that band on April 17, 1985.

(3) The Registrar may at any time add to or delete from a Band List maintained in the Department the name of any person who, in accordance with this Act, is entitled or not entitled, as the case may be, to have his name included in that List.

Received Time Mar-27. 10:51AM

(5) The name of a person who is entitled to have his name entered in a Band List maintained in the Department is not required to be entered therein unless an application for entry therein is made to the Registrar.

10. (1) A band may assume control of its own membership if it establishes membership rules for itself in writing in accordance with this section and if, after the band has given appropriate notice of its intention to assume control of its own membership, a majority of the electors of the band gives its consent to the band's control of its own membership.

(2) A band may, pursuant to the consent of a majority of the electors of the band,

(a) after it has given appropriate notice of its intention to do so, establish membership rules for itself; and

(b) provide for a mechanism for reviewing decisions on membership.

(4) Membership rules established by a band under this section may not deprive any person who had the right to have his name entered in the Band List for that band, immediately prior to the time the rules were established, of the right to have his name so entered by reason only of a situation that existed or an action that was taken before the rules came into force.

(5) For greater certainty, subsection (4) applies in respect of a person who was entitled to have his name entered in the Band List under paragraph 11(1)(c) immediately before the band assumed control of the Band List if that person does not subsequently cease to be entitled to have his name entered in the Band List.

(6) Where the conditions set out in subsection (1) have been met with respect to a band, the council of the band shall forthwith give notice to the Minister in writing that the band is assuming control of its own membership and shall provide the Minister with a copy of the membership rules for the band.

(7) On receipt of a notice from the council of a band under subsection (6), the Minister shall, if the conditions set out in subsection (1) have been complied with, forthwith

(a) give notice to the band that it has control of its own membership; and

(b) direct the Registrar to provide the band with a copy of the Band List maintained in the Department.

(8) Where a band assumes control of its membership under this section, the membership rules established by the band shall have effect from the day on which notice is given to the Minister under subsection (6), and any additions to or deletions from the Band List of the band by the Registrar on or after that day are of no effect unless they are in accordance with the membership rules established by the band.

(9) A band shall maintain its own Band List from the date on which a copy of the Band List is received by the band under paragraph (7)(b), and, subject to section 13.2, the Department shall have no further responsibility with respect to that Band List from that date.

(10) A band may at any time add to or delete from a Band List maintained by it the name of any person who, in accordance with the membership rules of the band, is entitled or not entitled, as the case may be, to have his name included in that list.

Received Time Mar. 27. 10:51AM

11. (1) Commencing on April 17, 1985, a person is entitled to have his name entered in a Band List maintained in the Department for a band if

(c) that person is entitled to be registered under paragraph 6(1)(c) and ceased to be a member of that band by reason of the circumstances set out in that paragraph; ....

(2) Commencing on the day that is two years after the day that an Act entitled An Act to amend the Indian Act, introduced in the House of Commons on February 28, 1985, is assented to, or on such earlier day as may be agreed to under section 13.1, where a band does not have control of its Band List under this Act, a person is entitled to have his name entered in a Band List maintained in the Department for the band

(a) if that person is entitled to be registered under paragraph 6(1)(d) or (e) and ceased to be a member of that band by reason of the circumstances set out in that paragraph; or

(b) if that person is entitled to be registered under paragraph 6(1)(f) or subsection 6(2) and a parent referred to in that provision is entitled to have his name entered in the Band List or, if no longer living, was at the time of death entitled to have his name entered in the Band List.

[15] The amending statute was adopted on June 27, 1985 but was made to take effect retroactively to April 17, 1985, the date on which section 15 of the Charter took effect. This fact in itself, without more, is a strong indication that one of the prime objectives of the legislation was to bring the provisions of the Indian Act into line with the new requirements of that section, particularly as they relate to gender equality.

[16] On July 8, 1985, the Band gave notice to the Minister that it intended to avail itself of the provisions of section 10 allowing it to assume control of its own Band List and that date, therefore, is the effective date of the coming into force of the Band's membership rules. Because C-31 was technically in force but realistically unenforceable for over two months before it was adopted and because the Band wasted no time in assuming control of its own Band List, none of the 11 women who are in question here were able to have their names entered on the Band List by the Registrar prior to the date on which the Band took such control.

[17] The relevant provisions of the Band's membership rules are as follows:

3. Each of the following persons shall have a right to have his or her name entered in the Band List:

(a) any person who, but for the establishment of these rule, would be entitled pursuant to subsection 11(1) of the Act to have his or her name entered in the Band List required to be maintained in the Department and who, at any time after these rules come into force, either

(i) is lawfully resident on the reserve; or

(ii) has applied for membership in the band and, in the judgment of the Band Council, has a significant commitment to, and knowledge of, the history, customs, traditions, culture and communal life of the Band and a character and lifestyle that would not cause his or her admission to membership in the Band to be detrimental to the future welfare or advancement of the Band;

5. In considering an application under section 3, the Band Council shall not refuse to enter the name of the applicant in the Band List by reason only of a situation that existed or an action that was taken before these Rules came into force.

11. The Band Council may consider and deal with applications made pursuant to section 3 of these Rules according to such procedure and as such time or times as it shall determine in its discretion and, without detracting from the generality of the foregoing, the Band Council may conduct such interviews, require such evidence and may deal with any two or more of such applications separately or together as it shall determine in its discretion.

[18] Section 3(a)(i) and (ii) clearly create pre-conditions to membership for acquired rights individuals, referred to in this provision by reference to section 11(1) of the Act. Those individuals must either be resident on the reserve, or they must demonstrate a significant commitment to the Band. In addition, the process as described in the evidence and provided for in section 11 of the membership rules requires the completion of an application form some 43 pages in length and calling upon the applicant to write several essays as well as to submit to interviews.

[19] The question that arises from these provisions and counsel's submissions is whether the Act provides for an automatic entitlement to Band membership for women who had lost it by reason of the former paragraph 12(1)(b). If it does, then the pre-conditions established by the Band violate the legislation.

[20] Paragraph 6(1)(c) of the Act entitles, inter alia, women who lost their status and membership because they married non-Indian men to be registered as status Indians.

[21] Paragraph 11(1)(c) establishes, inter alia, an automatic entitlement for the women referred to in paragraph 6(1)(c) to have their names added to the Band List maintained in the Department.

[22] These two provisions establish both an entitlement to Indian status, and an entitlement to have one's name added to a Band List maintained by the Department. These provisions do not specifically address whether bands have the same obligation as the Department to add names to their Band List maintained by the Band itself pursuant to section 10.

Received Time Mar.27. 10:51AM

[23] Subsection 10(4) attempts to address this issue by stipulating that nothing in a band's membership code can operate to deprive a person of her or his entitlement to registration "by reason only of" a situation that existed or an action that was taken before the rules came into force. For greater clarity, subsection 10(5) stipulates that subsection 10(4) applies to persons automatically entitled to membership pursuant to paragraph 11(1)(c), unless they subsequently cease to be entitled to membership.

[24] It is unfortunate that the awkward wording of subsections 10(4) and 10(5) does not make it absolutely clear that they were intended to entitle acquired rights individuals to automatic membership, and that the Band is not permitted to create pre-conditions to membership, as it has done. The words "by reason only of" in subsection 10(4) do appear to suggest that a band might legitimately refuse membership to persons for reasons other than those contemplated by the provision. This reading of subsection 10(4), however, does not sit easily with the other provisions in the Act as well as clear statements made at the time regarding the amendments when they were enacted in 1985.

[25] The meaning to be given to the word "entitled" as it is used in paragraph 6(1)(c) is clarified and extended by the definition of "member of a band" in section 2, which stipulates that a person who is entitled to have his name appear on a Band List is a member of the Band. Paragraph 11(1)(c) requires that, commencing on April 17, 1985, the date Bill C-31 took effect, a person was entitled to have his or her name entered in a Band List maintained by the Department of Indian Affairs for a band if, inter alia, that person was entitled to be registered under paragraph 6(1)(c) of the 1985 Act and ceased to be a member of that band by reason of the circumstances set out in paragraph 6(1)(c).

[26] While the Registrar is not obliged to enter the name of any person who does not apply therefor (see section 9(5)), that exemption is not extended to a band which has control of its list. However, the use of the imperative "shall" in section 8, makes it clear that the band is obliged to enter the names of all entitled persons on the list which it maintains. Accordingly, on July 8, 1985, the date the Sawridge Band obtained control of its List, it was obliged to enter thereon the names of the acquired rights women. When seen in this light, it becomes clear that the limitation on a band's powers contained in subsections 10(4) and 10(5) is simply a prohibition against legislating retrospectively ; a band may not create barriers to membership for those persons who are by law already deemed to be members.

[27] Although it deals specifically with Band Lists maintained in the Department, section 11 clearly distinguishes between automatic, or unconditional, entitlement to membership and conditional entitlement to membership. Subsection 11(1) provides for automatic entitlement to certain individuals as of the date the amendments came into force. Subsection 11(2), on the other hand, potentially leaves to the band's discretion the admission of the descendants of women who "married out."

Received Time Mar.27. 10:51AM

[28] The debate in the House of Commons, prior to the enactment of the amendments, reveals Parliament's intention to create an automatic entitlement to women who had lost their status because they married non-Indian men. Minister Crombie stated as follows :

... today, I am asking Hon. Members to consider legislation which will eliminate two historic wrongs in Canada's legislation regarding Indian people. These wrongs are discriminatory treatment based on sex and the control by Government of membership in Indian communities.

[Canada, House of Commons Debates, March 1, 1985, p. 2644]

[29] A little further, he spoke about the careful balancing between these rights in the Act. In this section, Minister Crombie referred to the difference between status and membership. He stated that, while those persons who lost their status and membership should have both restored, the descendants of those persons are only automatically entitled to status:

This legislation achieves balance and rests comfortably and fairly on the principle that those persons who lost status and membership should have their status and membership restored. While there are some who would draw the line there, in my view fairness also demands that the first generation descendants of those who were wronged by discriminatory legislation should have status under the Indian Act so that they will be eligible for individual benefits provided by the federal Government. However, their relationship with respect to membership and residency should be determined by the relationship with the Indian communities to which they belong.

[Debates, supra at 2645]

[30] Still further on, the Minister stated the fundamental purposes of amendments, and explained that, while those purposes may conflict, the fairest balance had been achieved:

... I have to reassert what is unshakable for this Government with respect to the Bill. First, it must include removal of discriminatory provisions in the Indian Act; second, it must include the restoration of status and membership to those who lost status and membership as a result of those discriminatory provisions; and third, it must ensure that the Indian First Nations who wish to do so can control their own membership. Those are the three principles which allow us to find balance and fairness and to proceed confidently in the face of any disappointment which may be expressed by persons or groups who were not able to accomplish 100 per cent of their own particular goals.

This is a difficult issue. It has been for many years. The challenge is striking. The fairest possible balance must be struck and I believe it has been struck in this Bill. I believe we have fulfilled the promise made by the Prime Minister in the Throne Speech that discrimination in the Indian Act would be ended.

[Debates, supra at 2646]

[31] At a meeting of the Standing Committee on Indian Affairs and Northern Development, Minister Crombie again made it clear that, while the Bill works towards full Indian self-government, the Bill also has as a goal remedying past wrongs:

Several members of this committee said during the debate on Friday that this bill is just a beginning and not an end in itself, but rather the beginning of a process aimed at full Indian self-government. I completely agree with that view. But before we can create the future, some of the wrongs of the past have to be corrected. That is, in part, the purpose of Bill C-31...

[Canada, House of Commons, Minutes of the Proceedings of the Special Committee on Indian Affairs and Northern Development, Issue no. 12, March 7, 1985 at 12:7]

[32] Furthermore, in the Minister's letter to Chief Walter Twinn on September 26, 1985, in which he accepted the membership code, the Minister reminded Chief Twinn of subsections 10(4) and (5) of the Act, and stated as follows:

We are both aware that Parliament intended that those persons listed in paragraph 6(1)(c) would at least initially be part of the membership of a Band which maintains its own list. Read in isolation your membership rules would appear to create a prerequisite to membership of lawful residency or significant commitment to the Band. However, I trust that your membership rules will be read in conjunction with the Act so that the persons who are entitled to reinstatement to Band membership, as a result of the Act, will be placed on your Band List. The amendments were designed to strike a delicate balance between the right of individuals to Band membership and the right of Bands to control their membership. I sponsored the Band control of membership amendments with a strongly held trust that Bands would fulfill their obligations and act fairly and reasonably. I believe you too feel this way, based on our past discussions.

[33] Sadly, it appears from the Band's subsequent actions that the Minister's "trust" was seriously misplaced. The very provisions of the Band's rules to which the Minister drew attention have, since their adoption, been invoked by the Band consistently and persistently to refuse membership to the 11 women in question. In fact, since 1985, the Band has only admitted three acquired rights women to membership, all of them apparently being sisters of the addressee of the Minister's letter.

[34] The quoted excerpts make it abundantly clear that Parliament intended to create an automatic right to Band membership for certain individuals, notwithstanding the fact that this would necessarily limit a band's control over its membership.

[35] In a very moving set of submissions on behalf of the plaintiff, Mrs. Twinn argued passionately that there were many significant problems with constructing the legislation as though it pits women's rights against Native rights. While I agree with Mrs. Twinn's concerns, the debates demonstrate that there existed at that time important differences between the positions of several groups affected by the legislation, and that the legislation was a result of Parliament's attempt to balance those different concerns. As such, while I agree wholeheartedly with Mrs. Twinn that there is nothing inherently contradictory between women's rights and Native rights, this legislation nevertheless sets out a regime for membership that recognizes women's rights at the expense of certain Native rights.

Received Time Mar.27. 10:51AM

Specifically, it entitles women who lost their status and band membership on account of marrying non-Indian men to automatic band membership.

[36] Subsection 10(5) is further evidence of my conclusion that the Act creates an automatic entitlement to membership, since it states, by reference to paragraph 11(1)(c), that nothing can deprive acquired rights individual to their automatic entitlement to membership unless they subsequently lose that entitlement. The band's membership rules do not include specific provisions that describe the circumstances in which acquired rights individuals might subsequently lose their entitlement to membership. Enacting application requirements is certainly not enough to deprive acquired rights individuals of their automatic entitlement to band membership, pursuant to subsection 10(5). To put the matter another way, Parliament having spoken in terms of entitlement and acquired rights, it would take more specific provisions than what is found in section 3 of the membership rules for delegated and subordinate legislation to take away or deprive Charter protected persons of those rights.

[37] As a result, I find that the Band's application of its membership rules, in which pre-conditions have been created to membership, is in contravention of the Indian Act.

[38] While not necessarily conclusive, it seems that the Band itself takes the same view. Although on the hearing of the present motion, it vigorously asserted that it was in compliance with the Act, its statement of claim herein asserts without reservation that C-31 has the effect of imposing on it members that it does not want. Paragraph 22 of the Fresh as Amended Statement of Claim reads as follows:

22. The plaintiffs state that with the enactment of the Amendments, Parliament attempted unilaterally to require the First Nations to admit certain persons to membership. The Amendments granted individual membership rights in each of the First Nations without their consent, and indeed over their objection. Furthermore, such membership rights were granted to individuals without regard for their actual connection to or interest in the First Nation, and regardless of their individual desires or that of the First Nation, or the circumstances pertaining to the First Nation. This exercise of power by Parliament was unprecedented in the predecessor legislation.

[39] I shall grant the mandatory injunction as requested and will specifically order that the names of the 11 known acquired rights women be added to the Band List and that they be accorded all the rights of membership in the Band.

[40] I reserve the question of costs for the Crown. If it seeks them, it should do so by moving pursuant to Rule 369 of the Federal Court Rules, 1998. While the interveners have made a useful contribution to the debate, I would not order any costs to or against them.

ORDER

The plaintiff and the persons on whose behalf she sues, being all the members of the Sawridge Band, are hereby ordered, pending a final resolution of the plaintiff's action, to enter or register on the Sawridge Band List the names of the individuals who acquired the right to be members of the Sawridge Band before it took control of its Band List, with the full rights and privileges enjoyed by all Band members.

Received Time Mar. 27. 10:51AM

Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, this Order requires that the following persons, namely, Jeannette Nancy Boudreau, Elizabeth Courtoreille, Henry Edward DeJong, Roseina Anna Lindberg, Cecil Yvonne Loyie, Elsie Flora Loyie, Rita Rose Mandel, Elizabeth Bernadette Potras, Lillian Ann Marie Potskin, Margaret Ages Clara Ward and Mary Rachel L Hironelle be forthwith entered on the Band List of the Sawridge Band and be immediately accorded all the rights and privileges attaching to Band membership.
