

The following information is relevant to anyone who may have clients attending or there are other interested parties attending:

Any non-lawyer attending a hearing remotely must complete and return an Undertaking and Agreement for Non-Lawyers and return it to the Communications Officer at the Court of Queen's Bench. This was a direction made by the Court of Queen's Bench back in April 2020: News & Announcements \(albertacourts.ca\).

A copy of the Undertaking and Agreement for Non-Lawyers is available in PDF and WORD formats on the following website along with instructions on where it should be returned by email or fax: Public & Media Access \(albertacourts.ca\). The website indicates that it can be returned by fax or email to the Communications Officer.

We are posting the above information to the website as well as the undertaking below with the action number and abbreviated style of cause inserted.

COURT OF QUEEN'S BENCH OF ALBERTA

Case Name: In the matter of the Sawridge Intervivos Settlement [ ] "1985 Trust" – Applicants Roland Twinn et al ("Sawridge Trustees")

Action No.: 1103 14112

UNDERTAKING AND AGREEMENT OF NON-LAWYER

I am a non-lawyer participant in the above matter before the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta. I understand the Court has restricted in-person hearings in light of the COVID-19 pandemic. I further understand that, in keeping with the open-court principle of Canada's justice system, I can participate in my hearing by audioconference or videoconference.

To protect the integrity of Court proceedings, I undertake and agree not to record or rebroadcast in any manner the Court proceedings in which I participate. I acknowledge that if I breach this promise and agreement, I may be subject to legal sanction, including proceedings for civil contempt of court.
